Miura Peninsula is famous for its mandarin oranges, strawberries, and sweet potatoes. At the Tsukuihama Tourist Farm everyone can enjoy picking the taste of each season! Mikan (Mandarin oranges) are the most popular type of Japanese oranges. Miura Peninsula Mikan are grown bathed in natural sunlight, burst with an exquisite balance of sweet and sour taste, peel easily and are popular as a dessert or the perfect healthy snack. Locally produced vegetables, jam, and tsukemono pickles are also available at the farm's information center.
